1 MR. BERKOWITZ: Yeah, this is -- we're on
2 No. 3.

3 BY MR. BERKOWITZ

4 Q. And this is another set of the bills of
5 sale prepared by Boston Harley-Davidson, but now
6 we've got a price listed, is that correct?

7 A. Yes.

8 MR. REHNQUIST: I'm going to object to the 9 foundation. I don't think the witness has any
10 basis for knowing that, and she hasn't reviewed
11 the document to see what they are.

12 A. I --

13 MR. CONTINI: Just wait for a specific
14 question.

15 THE WITNESS: Okay.

16 MR. CONTINI: And don't speculate, Debbie.
17 Only if you have personal knowledge of 18 something.

19 THE WITNESS: Okay.

20 BY MR. BERKOWITZ

21 Q. Did you cause 19 separate cashier's checks
22 to be issued for these motorcycles, payable to 23 Boston Harley-Davidson?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. All right. Can you identify what we've

1 THE WITNESS: I'm sorry. I'm not
2 accustomed to this, okay.

3 MR. REHNQUIST: No one should be.

4 THE WITNESS: Okay.

5 MR. CONTINI: Bill, it may make it faster
6 for everybody -- the only reason why there's an 7 interruption on the invocation of her Fifth is
8 because of the concerns for Federal money
9 laundering statutes.

10 MR. BERKOWITZ: All right. Well, that's 11 fine.

12 MR. CONTINI: And that's -- she's going to 13 answer everything she can.

14 MR. BERKOWITZ: I appreciate that.

15 MR. CONTINI: 95 percent of the questions
16 today.

17 BY MR. BERKOWITZ

18 Q. On these checks in Exhibit 4, there's -- 19 there are names for these 19 people that are in the 20 remitter line; do you see that? I'm not asking who 21 put the names in. I just want to see if you can 22 identify --

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. -- yes, there are names.

25 A. Yes.

Lunsford, Debra 24688sm

www.floridarealtime.com

1 Q. And to your knowledge did any of those
2 people provide any funds for the purchase of any of
3 these motorcycles to DCI?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Yes, they did?

6 A. No, I'm sorry. Say that again.

7 Q. Did any of the 19 people that are 8 identified as these fictitious customers, did they 9 provide any money to DCI for any of these bikes?

10 A. No, they did not. This was all DC
11 International's money.

12 Q. Okay. And this was -- these funds were 13 coming out of DC International's bank account at 14 Northern Trust Bank of Florida, is that correct?

15 A. That's correct.

16 MR. REHNQUIST: Objection. Leading.

17 (Conferring with counsel.)

18 MR. CONTINI: I apologize, gentlemen, for 19 the interruptions on my behalf before.

20 BY MR. BERKOWITZ

21 Q. The -- the date of the checks, of all of 22 the checks, is July 28, 2003; do you see that?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. That's on Exhibit 4, correct?

25 A. Yes.

1 purchaser took title to his or her motorcycle in his
2 or her own name, as reflected on the certificates of 3 origin in each deal jacket." Do you see that
4 sentence?

5 A. Yes, I do.

6 Q. Is that sentence true?

7 A. No.

8 Q. In fact, DCI purchased all of the 19
9 motorcycles, is that correct?

10 A. Yes, we did.

11 MR. REHNQUIST: Objection.

12 BY MR. BERKOWITZ

13 Q. And Boston Harley-Davidson was aware of 14 that, is that correct?

15 MR. REHNQUIST: Objection, leading.

16 A. Boston Harley-Davidson instructed us to do
17 it that way.

18 BY MR. BERKOWITZ

19 Q. The last sentence of Paragraph 6 states,
20 quote, on paper and as far as anyone at Cycle-Craft
21 knew or could have known, these were sales to 22 individual purchasers in compliance with all
23 Harley-Davidson policies, end quote. Do you see
24 that statement?

25 A. Yes, I do.

1 the plea agreement with the State Attorney's
2 Office out of Palm Beach, the charge would then
3 be dismissed. So she was never convicted.
4 Jeopardy did attach and that's why she's
5 answering your questions today, trying to be as
6 cooperative and helpful as possible, as opposed
7 to sitting here, invoking her Fifth Amendment
8 privilege, which she otherwise could do
9 arguably. I just wanted you to know it wasn't
10 just the title fraud. I forget which felony
11 you mentioned just now, you mentioned a
12 particular felony, but it would speak to many 13 other arguable felonies, for instance, title
14 fraud, sales tax fraud, wire fraud, bank fraud,
15 money laundering.

16 BY MR. REHNQUIST

17 Q. I'm not -- I don't mean to quibble about
18 the scope of the -- of the charges, but what I do
19 want to understand is that you did enter into a plea
20 agreement, is that correct?

21 A. Yes.

22 Q. And you did plead guilty to a charge,
23 correct?

24 A. Yes. One charge of title fraud.

25 Q. Right. And that -- and that's a felony in

1 the State of Florida?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. And you received a sentence of one year
4 probation, is that my understanding?

5 A. Pretrial intervention.

6 MR. CONTINI: Yeah, and I again might be
7 at fault here. I don't know that she pled
8 guilty. She may have pled no contest. I'm not
9 entirely sure. Now, in retrospect, I believe
10 it may have been a guilty plea in order to get 11 into PTI, but it's separate and distinct from 12 probation. Had she gone into -- had she been 13 sentenced to probation, adjudication might be
14 withheld. In Massachusetts I believe they call
15 it a continuance without a finding. Here they 16 call it adjudication withheld. She didn't have 17 that kind of sentence. She was never sentenced
18 to probation.

19 It's somewhat confusing because the 20 probation department happens to monitor those 21 people who get into the PTI program. She was 22 accepted into the PTI program which results in 23 a dismissal of the underlying charge. And I
24 know that -- that may be too much information,
25 but she was not sentenced to probation. But I

1 believe you may be correct, Mr. Rehnquist; she
2 may have had to enter a guilty plea in order to
3 be accepted into PTI.

4 BY MR. REHNQUIST

5 Q. Well, Ms. Lunsford, your understanding,
6 and let me just ask you what your understanding is,
7 and the actual legal significance of it, your 8 attorney and I can sort out later. But your 9 understanding is that you did plead guilty to a
10 charge of title fraud?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. And you pled guilty because you had 13 committed that crime, is that correct?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And you understood when you pleaded guilty
16 that you could have gone to trial and tried to 17 defend against that charge?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And you understood and I imagine you were 20 in front of a judge who told you if you went to 21 trial, you had all kind of defenses, you could 22 cross-examine witnesses, the government would have 23 to prove its case beyond a reasonable doubt and 24 other things like that; you understood all that,
25 correct?

Lunsford, Debra 24688sm

www.floridarealtime.com

1 A. Yes.

2 Q. And instead, you pleaded guilty because
3 you were guilty?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Ms. Lunsford, when did you make the
6 decision that you would submit altered bills of sale
7 to the Department of Motor Vehicles? I mean, if we
8 can -- if we can just place it in context, July 30
9 was when you sent this fax to Libby. The 10 applications themselves are dated July 23rd, so that 11 may not be terribly helpful. But if you can place
12 it in terms of what we've been talking about today,
13 I'd just like to know when it was that you made the 14 decision to -- to alter the bills of sale.

15 A. When I didn't have the figures. When I
16 didn't have the correct amount of what the deal was 17 and I didn't know what each bike was. I didn't know
18 what to take out and what was taxable and wasn't --
19 and what wasn't taxable. That's when I just did the 20 best I could. I've never done -- I had never done
21 this before so I didn't know how it worked. So I
22 just did the best I could.

23 Q. Did you -- did you alter the bills of sale
24 before you knew how much the figures on the 25 cashier's check were?

Lunsford, Debra 24688sm

www.floridarealtime.com

1 MR. REHNQUIST: Sorry.

2 MR. BERKOWITZ: Did you finish your
3 answer?

4 A. Excuse me?

5 MR. REHNQUIST: Yeah.

6 BY MR. REHNQUIST

7 Q. So you're testifying now about other
8 things you remember Ron saying in this first
9 conversation?

10 A. It could have been in any of those
11 conversations.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. Okay. I don't know exactly which one it
14 was or when it was, but I just remember, you
15 know ...

16 Q. Did he tell you that these motorcycles had 17 to be sold to individuals?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. And did he tell you that -- did he give 20 you any reason as to why the motorcycles had to be 21 sold to individuals?

22 A. Because he couldn't do a dealer-to-dealer
23 transaction because he had to do it in individual
24 names for his allocation. He had to -- it had to be 25 like a retail deal. That's the only way he could

1 let 19 motorcycles go.

2 Q. Again, but did he tell you that the sales
3 had to be made to individuals?

4 A. Yes.

5 Q. Do you remember anything else that -- that
6 Ron Buchbaum said in either this first conversation
7 or any conversation?

8 A. No. That's --

9 Q. That's the substance of it?

10 A. Pretty much, yeah.

11 Q. And again, you don't recall the -- the 12 number -- the exact number of the conversations or 13 the exact length of the conversations, but your best
14 memory is that there was two to three conversations
15 and they were no longer than five minutes, is that
16 correct?

17 A. I don't really remember, but yes, I guess
18 that's -- that's about it.

19 Q. And again, your best memory is that your 20 telephone conversations with Ron Buchbaum were when 21 you were in the DC Imports office?

22 A. Yes.

23 Q. And just to follow up, do you recall, when
24 you talked to either Ron Buchbaum or Sean Walsh,
25 where they were? In other words, do you know if you
